

D'ANNUNZIO BREAKS WITH FIUME COUNCIL

Declares City Must Proclaim Independence and Extend Its Confines.

Trieste, Aug. 14.—An open break has occurred between the National Council of Fiume and Gabriele d'Annunzio, the soldier-poet whose insurgent troops have been in possession of the city for nearly a year past.

D'Annunzio declared that the establishment of the free and independent state of Fiume is imminent, and that he plans to extend its confines along the so-called Wilson line of demarcation between Italian and Jugoslav territory.

Serbian patrols yesterday fired on the poet's sailboat off the island of Veglia. A machine gun on the D'Annunzio craft returned the fire and silenced the Serbs.

The soldier-poet addressed a meeting of his soldiers last night, when no members of the National Council were in the city. Discussing the proposed extension of the area of Fiume, he said:

"I think the city must proclaim its independence and extend its confines. Fiume is now limited within the boundaries set by Maria Theresa (Archduchess of Austria and Queen of Hungary) in the eighteenth century. One feels suffocated within them."

"I have reason to believe that my project will not receive the consent which I desire from the national council. I seek instead the consent of the people of Fiume. If I am denied it I will leave before the anniversary of my entrance."

Announcement of the appointment of Whitney Warren, architect, of New York and Boston, as the official representative in America of Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio and the Government of Fiume, was made here today upon receipt of a cablegram from Paris.

The message read: "Commandante d'Annunzio and National Council appoint you official representative of Fiume in America. Your credentials forwarded by courier."

Mr. Warren, who has spent many years in Europe, has been a conspicuous defender of Italy's aspirations in the Adriatic.
